

A Special Invitation

The Nashville Scholars of the 3 Pipe Problem invite you to enjoy pleasantries of fellowship, holiday cheer, intrigue and entertainment of a historical nature at The Hermitage Hotel on Saturday, December 16, 2017 at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

Come ascend the grand staircase. Adventure beckons and awaits!

Proceed across the lobby beyond the reception desk to the historical alcove (pictured on next page.)

Host Tom Vickstrom will lead a narrated tour of Nashville's famous hotel, which opened in 1910.

Some stories from a century of hospitality will be revealed. Clues to some unsolved mysteries will be pointed out. Intrigue amidst splendor will be the theme.

Motorcar arrangements and Livery Stables:

For those wishing to stay on for an optional lunch in the Capitol Grille or the Oak Bar, complimentary valet parking is offered by the hotel. For anyone who prefers to join in before lunchtime only, hotel valet parking is provided at $13 or various nearby options may be found at the public library "on your own" or at various other downtown locations.

The first Christmas card printed and sold in London in 1843. (Wikimedia Commons/Public domain)